Relative or Non-Relative Extended Family Member Caregiver Assessment

All statements below must be answered “Yes” to approve the caregiver. When there is a “No” answer, the worker should assess whether the provision of reasonable assistance or additional services to the caregiver would enable the caregiver to properly respond to the child’s needs, health and safety. If the worker later reassesses the caregiver and determines that conditions supporting the No answer have changed sufficiently to answer Yes, caregiver approval may be given at that time.

Responses to the following statements have been assessed by the undersigned.

1. The caregiver has been provided a summary of State home approval regulations and is capable, having sufficient physical and mental health, to meet these requirements for the care and supervision appropriate to the specific needs of the child to be served. [§89318]
