SUBJECT: FINAL COURT ORDER AND CLARIFICATION ISSUED JUNE 16, 2006
REGARDING State of California, Department of Social Services and Enequina Rosales v. Tommy G. Thompson, Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services; United States District Court, Eastern District Case No. CIV S-99-00355 FCD JFM

RERERENCE: All County Letter (ACL) No. 03-43, ACL No. 04-12,
County Fiscal Letter (CFL) No. 04/05-38, and All County Information
Notice (ACIN) I-19-06 Issued March 30, 2006

This All County Letter (ACL) provides further information about changes to the foster care program made by the Deficit Reduction Act (DRA) of 2005. This ACL supersedes the California Department of Social Services (CDSS) ACIN I-19-06, issued on March 30, 2006.

The DRA amends the federal Title IV-E statute to alter the foster care eligibility criteria previously established in Rosales v. Thompson. The CDSS has been awaiting federal Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and court clarification before issuing detailed instructions on the implementation of this change. The CDSS has now received the district court's order issued on June 16, 2006 (Attachment A), and the federal instruction letter, ACYF-CB-IM-06-2, issued on June 9, 2006 (Attachment B), containing instructions related to the impact of the federal DRA on Rosales cases. Please note that CDSS will be issuing separate guidance on other directives contained in this federal transmittal.

The federal transmittal requires that counties must cease basing new eligibility decisions for foster care upon Manuel of Policies and Procedures (MPP) 45-202.332 (the Rosales criteria) after February 8, 2006, the date the DRA was enacted; eligibility must be based on the home of the parent from whom the child was removed, as set forth in MPP 45-202.331. Although the Rosales court order confirms this instruction, the court has delayed the implementation date for the new eligibility criteria to June 9, 2006, which supersedes the date stated in the federal transmittal dated February 8, 2006.

In addition, counties must now reexamine cases, if any, in which Rosales eligibility has already been terminated, and those in which Rosales eligibility was denied, on or after February 8, 2006, based on the DRA, as instructed by ACIN I-19-06. This ACIN instructed counties to "immediately 'track' all Rosales cases...until clarification is received from the court and DHHS." Per the court order, the counties must continue to apply the Rosales criteria in MPP 45-202.332 to determine eligibility until June 9, 2006, and must pay any benefits due to such cases until the redetermination of eligibility as required by the federal instructions.

For cases that were determined eligible for foster care benefits using Rosales criteria on or prior to February 8, 2006, the federal transmittal also requires that eligibility must be redetermined based upon MPP 45-202.331 on the annual redetermination date, beginning on February 8, 2006. The federal court again confirmed this instruction to redetermine eligibility but delayed the implementation date until June 9, 2006. Specifically, the federal instructions regarding redeterminations of eligibility, as modified by the court order, states as follows:

"For children in the Ninth Circuit who were determined eligible only because of the Rosales decision on or prior to [June 9, 2006], we will permit eligibility for Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments to continue through the month when the child's next annual redetermination of eligibility is due. After the month of redetermination, States will no longer be eligible to receive Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments on behalf of children determined eligible only because of the Rosales decision, in accordance with section 472(a) of the Act as amended... if redeterminations are not held timely (i.e. at least every 12 months) for children determined eligible pursuant to Rosales, the child will not be eligible for Title IV-E foster care maintenance payments from the month subsequent to the month when the last redetermination was due."

If your county has redeterminations due on June 9, 2006 or after, you must assure that your redeterminations of these cases are performed timely. All redeterminations due in the month of June 2006 must be completed before July 1, 2006 and Aid to Families with Dependent Children - Foster Care benefit payments must be terminated for those cases ineligible under MPP 45-202.331. There will be no federal financial participation for any cases that are not redetermined in a timely manner.

Additional information and new claiming instructions will be provided to counties in a forthcoming County Fiscal Letter. If you have any questions regarding this ACL, please contact your Foster Care Eligibility Consultant at (916) 651-9152.

Sincerely,

MARY L. AULT

The court will issue a written order further memorializing its findings made on the record but issues this minute order in the interim:

After review of the record, the materials submitted by the parties, and the arguments made at the hearing, the court makes the following orders:

- (1) The Court GRANTS plaintiff's State of California, Department of Social Services ("DSS") and defendant's Michael Leavitt, Secretary of Health and Human Services ("Secretary") motions for relief from judgment pursuant to Rule 60(b)(6) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. The court finds that relief from judgment on "just" terms requires that relief be granted from June 9, 2006, when a formal information memo was issued by Health and Human Services ("HHS"), instructing State agencies, including DSS, how the language of the Deficit Reduction Act ("DRA") was to be implemented. As such, relief from judgment is effective June 9, 2006.

(2) The Court GRANTS in part and DENIES in part plaintiff/intervenor Enedina Rosales' and individual Movants' motions to enforce judgment. Because neither Rosales nor Movants have provided any evidence that DSS has not complied with the court's order prior to March 30, 2006, the motions to enforce judgment are DENIED in part. However, because evidence has been presented that DSS instructed counties to effectively disregard the court's order through the March 30, 2006 letter, the motions are GRANTED in part. Therefore, the court orders:

(a) DSS shall make AFDC-FC payments from March 30, 2006 through June 9, 2006, for those cases in which the child was entitled to AFDC-FC payments under CDSS/Rosales v. Thompson, 321 F.3d 835 (9th Cir. 2003), and was otherwise eligible for such benefits and those payments were not paid.

(b) The Secretary shall reimburse DSS, and the State of California, at the federal participation rate, for all AFDC-FC benefits paid by DSS pursuant to the approved Title IV-E AFDC-FC State Plan Amendment and this court's prior order which remained effective until June 9, 2006.

INFORMATION MEMORANDUM

To: State, Tribal and Territorial Agencies Administering or Supervising the Administration of Title IV-B and Title IV-E of the Social Security Act, Indian Tribes and Indian Tribal Organizations

Subject: New Legislation—The Deficit Reduction Act of 2005

References: Title VII of the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005; Titles IV-B and IV-E of the Social Security Act; 70 FR 4803; ACYF-CB-PI-02-08 superseded; ACYF-CB-IM-04-03.

Purpose: The purpose of this Information Memorandum is to inform States and Indian Tribes of the enactment of the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, provide basic information about the child welfare provisions in the law and discuss its implications for States and Indian Tribes.

Information: The President signed the Deficit Reduction Act of 2005, Public Law 109-171 into law on February 8, 2006. The law amends many programs under the Social Security Act (the Act), including title IV-B subparts 1 and 2, the Court Improvement Program in subpart 2 and the title IV-E Foster Care Maintenance Payments and Adoption Assistance Programs. Please refer to the attached excerpt of law for the amendments. A summary of the amendments to titles IV-B and IV-E follows:

Court Improvement. The law authorizes and appropriates funds for two new grants under the Court Improvement Program in title IV-B, section 438 of the Act.¹ The highest State court in a State with an approved title IV-E plan is eligible to apply for either or both of the new grants for each grant purpose. The new grants are for the purposes of:

¹ The original court improvement grants are authorized through Fiscal Year 2006 (see sections 436(b)(2) and 437(b)(2) of the Act) and have not been reauthorized by this legislation.

- Ensuring that the needs of children are met in a timely and complete manner through improved case tracking and analysis of child welfare cases, and
- Training judges, attorneys and other legal personnel in child welfare cases and conducting cross-training with child welfare agency staff and contractors.

The new grants are authorized for $10 million each and funded for Federal Fiscal Years 2006 through 2010. State allocations include $85,000 for each State, plus a share of the remaining appropriation based on the State's population of persons under age 21.

Collaboration with courts. The law adds a title IV-B plan requirement to section 422 of the Act for the State or Tribe to demonstrate substantial, ongoing and meaningful collaboration with State courts in the development and implementation of its title IV-B and title IV-E plan, child and family services review and other program improvement plans required by section 1123A of the Act (section 422(b)(15) of the Act).

Public Access to Court Proceedings. The law adds section 471(c) to title IV-E of the Act to provide States with the flexibility to allow public access to court proceedings that determine child abuse or neglect and other court hearings held pursuant to titles IV-B and title IV-E, except that the State shall, at a minimum, ensure the safety and well-being of the child, parents and family in developing "open court" policies.

Promoting Safe and Stable Families (PSSF). The law authorizes (but does not separately appropriate) $345 million in mandatory funds for the PSSF program under title IV-B, subpart 2 of the Act for Fiscal Year (FY) 2006, which is an increase in the authorization by $40 million (section 436 of the Act).

Administrative costs for children in unallowable facilities and relative homes. The law adds section 472(i) to title IV-E of the Act to allow a State to claim Federal Financial Participation (FFP) for allowable administrative expenses for a child otherwise eligible for title IV-E in limited circumstances. The law allows the State to claim FFP for administrative costs:

- For the lesser of 12 months or the average length of time it takes the State to license or approve the home when an otherwise title IV-E eligible child is placed in the home of a relative with an application pending for a foster family home license or approval, or
- For one calendar month for an otherwise title IV-E eligible child transitioning from an unlicensed or unapproved facility to a licensed or approved foster family home or child care institution.

Administrative costs for title IV-E foster care candidates. New section 472(i) also permits a State to claim Federal reimbursement for allowable administrative costs for a potentially title IV-E eligible child who is at imminent risk of removal from the home if:

- Reasonable efforts are being made to prevent the removal of the child from the home or, if necessary, to pursue the removal, and
- The State agency has made, at least every six months, a determination or redetermination that the child remains at imminent risk of removal from the home.

Clarification of Foster Care Maintenance Payments Eligibility Criteria. The law revises section 472(a) of the Act to clarify that for title IV-E foster care eligibility a child must be eligible for Aid to Families with Dependent Children (AFDC) in the specified relative's home from which he or she is removed. The amendment to the Act corresponds with the Department of Health and Human Services' long-standing interpretation that in order to be eligible under title IV-E, a child must be eligible for AFDC (as it was in effect in the State on July 16, 1996) in the specified relative's home from which the child is removed. If the child is not eligible in the specified relative's home from which the child is removed, the child will be ineligible for title IV-E for the duration of the child's foster care episode.

Adoption Assistance Eligibility Criteria. The law revises section 473(a)(2) of the Act to clarify that for title IV-E adoption assistance eligibility, a child must meet the AFDC criteria in the specified relative's home from which he or she is removed.² Further, the law simplifies an aspect of adoption assistance eligibility by requiring that a child meet the AFDC eligibility criteria (as they existed in the State's title IV-A plan on July 16, 1996) at the time of the child's removal from a specified relative only. A State is no longer required to determine the child's AFDC eligibility at the time of the initiation of adoption proceedings.

Implications for States of the title IV-B and IV-E amendments:

Court Improvement. Instructions regarding the new court improvement grants will be provided under a separate program instruction.

Effect on States operating under the Rosales v. Thompson decision. The law, as amended, governs all States including those in the Ninth Circuit. All title IV-B/IV-E State agencies must now determine a child's AFDC eligibility based on the specified relative's home from which the child was removed and not based on the criteria stated in the Rosales v. Thompson decision. Further, the law confirms that the children who were determined eligible only because of the Rosales decision are not eligible for title IV-E foster care maintenance payments.

² The law makes no substantive changes for children eligible under the non-AFDC eligibility criteria for the adoption assistance program (i.e., for a child with special needs who is either eligible for Supplemental Security Income, a child of a minor parent receiving title IV-E foster care maintenance payments, or has received title IV-E adoption assistance previously (see sections 473(a)(2)(A)(i)(II), 473(a)(2)(A)(i)(III) and 473(a)(2)(C) of the Act)).

For children in the Ninth Circuit who were determined eligible only because of the Rosales decision on or prior to February 8, 2006, we will permit eligibility for title IV-E foster care maintenance payments to continue through the month when the child's next annual redetermination of eligibility is due.³ After the month of redetermination, States will no longer be eligible to receive title IV-E foster care maintenance payments on behalf of children determined eligible only because of the Rosales decision, in accordance with section 472(a) of the Act as amended.

States need not alter their redetermination schedule. However, if redeterminations are not held timely (i.e., at least every 12 months) for children determined eligible pursuant to Rosales, the child will not be eligible for title IV-E foster care maintenance payments from the month subsequent to the month when the last redetermination was due.

A child cannot be newly eligible for title IV-E foster care maintenance payments pursuant to the Rosales decision after February 8, 2006.⁴

Effect on title IV-E administrative cost claims for candidates for foster care and children placed in unlicensed relative foster family homes. The law supersedes ACYF-CB-PI-02-08, which permitted States to claim FFP for the administrative costs associated with an otherwise title IV-E eligible child placed in an unlicensed foster family home.

For a child placed with an unlicensed or unapproved relative caregiver after February 8, 2006, the State can claim allowable administrative costs for a child placed with an unlicensed or unapproved relative only if all criteria in section 472(i) of the Act are met.⁵

Effect on simplified title IV-E adoption assistance eligibility. A child whose adoption was finalized on or after October 1, 2005, and who meets the criteria in section 473(a)(2)(A) of the Act as amended, is eligible for title IV-E adoption assistance.

The Regional Office staff will work with the States to ensure that title IV-E State plans and cost allocations plans are amended accordingly.

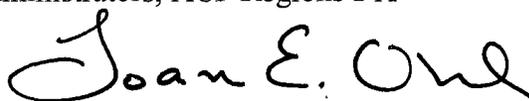

³ See Child Welfare Policy Manual Section 8.3A.10 QA#2 regarding redeterminations of a child's eligibility for AFDC.

⁴ A child must meet the AFDC criteria pursuant to Rosales on or prior to February 8, 2006, but other eligibility factors (e.g., judicial determinations regarding reasonable efforts and placement in an approved or licensed foster family home or child care institution) may be met at a later date consistent with section 472(a) of the Act and 45 CFR 1355.20 and 1356.21.

⁵ Allowable costs are defined in statute at section 474 of the Act and 45 CFR 1356.60(c).

(a) FOSTER CARE MAINTENANCE PAYMENTS.—Section 472(a) (42 U.S.C. 672(a)) is amended to read as follows:

“(a) IN GENERAL.—

“(1) ELIGIBILITY.—Each State with a plan approved under this part shall make foster care maintenance payments on behalf of each child who has been removed from the home of a relative specified in section 406(a) (as in effect on July 16, 1996) into foster care if—

“(A) the removal and foster care placement met, and the placement continues to meet, the requirements of paragraph (2); and

“(B) the child, while in the home, would have met the AFDC eligibility requirement of paragraph (3).

“(2) REMOVAL AND FOSTER CARE PLACEMENT REQUIREMENTS.—The removal and foster care placement of a child meet the requirements of this paragraph if—

“(A) the removal and foster care placement are in accordance with—

“(i) a voluntary placement agreement entered into by a parent or legal guardian of the child who is the relative referred to in paragraph (1); or

“(B) the child’s placement and care are the responsibility of—

“(i) the State agency administering the State plan approved under section 471; or

“(C) the child has been placed in a foster family home or child-care institution.

“(3) AFDC ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENT.—

“(A) IN GENERAL.—A child in the home referred to in paragraph (1) would have met the AFDC eligibility requirement of this paragraph if the child—

“(i) would have received aid under the State plan approved under section 402 (as in effect on July 16, 1996) in the home, in or for the month in which the agreement was entered into or court proceedings leading to the determination referred to in paragraph (2)(A)(ii) of this subsection were initiated; or

“(ii)(I) would have received the aid in the home, in or for the month referred to in clause (i), if application had been made therefor; or

“(II) had been living in the home within 6 months before the month in which the agreement was entered into or the proceedings were initiated, and would have received the aid in or for such month, if, in such month, the child had been living in the home with the relative referred to in paragraph (1) and application for the aid had been made.
